Warrior Pride

- Three 8th grade students were named as finalists in the Respect Life Creative Writing Contest. They are Joseph Flieg, Aly Bauman, and Clayton Drury. Ms. Mueller and their parents will travel to St. Louis next week for the awards Ceremony.
- Congratulations to our 2nd graders. They received a Brown Scapular and a rosary Thursday morning at Mass. The rosaries were made by Colton Vonder Haar's Great Uncle Paul. These are special gifts for the children as they prepare for receiving their 1st Holy Eucharist on May 4.
- Friday Folder's have lots of information this week. There is information about the upcoming Field Day and Kona Ice on May 10. There is a sign-up form for the Spring Youth Plein Air. Last of all, there is a flyer about a Transportation Fair on May 6.

Thank you to Valle

Dear Mrs. Blair,

Thank you for your school's gift of $145 for the Missionary Childhood Association. Please express my thanks and gratitude to all of your students for their generosity! Because of your support, missionaries will have the tools to further their labor of love for the extension of the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

The generosity of your faculty and students certainly reflects a great love for missions. To you and everyone who in any way helped, our heartfelt thanks, which are small indeed compared to the gratitude in the hearts of our missionaries and those they serve.

Sincerely,

Reverend Timothy J. Noelker
