What's Happening at Valle Grade School?

APRIL 7, 2017

Warrior Pride

- A big CONGRATULATIONS to our middle school drama students! Their production of Twinderella was so entertaining. We have such talented kids here at Valle Catholic. A shout-out to Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Weiler, Ms. Menard and Mr. Palmer for their support and dedication to our drama students and program.
- This week in Church as the congregation sang “Blest Be the Lord,” Colton V. in kindergarten noticed a ray of sunshine beam through a stained glass window. He leaned over to Mrs. Blair, his Prayer Angel, and said, “God is here!” How observant! What a beautiful statement, Colton.
- On Wednesday and Thursday of this week, incoming kindergarten students for the 2017-2018 school year spent the morning with our K classes. It was wonderful getting to know our newest little Warriors!

Important Reminders

- There will be no “Valle View” next week. Enjoy the Easter break!
- The online registration process for 2017-2018 is open. Please check your email from Miss Jamie. Update your family profile, register each child, print the form and send it to school with your $25.00 registration fee (per child). Thank you! Registration is due Friday, April 28.
- There is a lot of information regarding our Spring Book Fair and Art Show coming home in FFFs today. The events will be held the week we return from Easter break. You can still sign up to volunteer on the Home page of School Speak.

Did You Know?

Five of our second grade students at Valle Catholic are members of Boy Scout Pack 404. They will be conducting a service project next week to help families in our community who are in need. Starting Monday morning, April 10, empty boxes will be placed in the lobby. The boys are asking students to donate a non-perishable item for St. Vincent DePaul. Items will be collected M—W of next week.
Thank you!
